

Exquisite Gowns With A Touch Of Personality

Look stunning on your big day and indulge yourself in the royal pleasures of magnificent gowns! The dynamic duo at The Wedding Present showcases rich textures, prints and a generous creation of beads on lace and silk brocade. Expect extravagant designs, with fancy accessories to match, for the ornate, baroque look. Steering away from embroidery this season, the creative duo is advocating rich, luscious tones and textures with complimenting beads and lace.

Almost a decade in the industry, the talented Patrick Chan and Jordan Ong are constantly re-inspired and churning out novel designs to surprise. Fiercely defensive of aesthetics, your comfort is never compromised in these stylish gowns with intricate embellishments and patterns. "Our brides are so comfortable in their gowns, they can run, walk and bend over during their photo shoots," says Jordan Ong. Despite the opulent designs and intricate beadwork, the gowns retain their elegance and practicality.

Inspired by the haut couture trends and indie designers, the duo created exquisite designs with intricate hand-sewn embellishments drawing inspiration from Reem Acra for ornate beaded creations and Viktor and Rolf for their eye catching giant ribbon and bow motif this season. All their designs are original, edgy, personally sewn and hand made with a strong flavour of authenticity. Need more variety amidst this haven of spectacular?

The Wedding Present also stocks wedding gowns by Mariana Hardwick, sporting lavish raw Chantilly lace, Grosgrain ribbons and petal-soft silks.

Finally, enjoy absolute privacy in a spacious dressing room where you and your girlfriends can giggle and fuss about for the big day. Pair up with luscious, bold accessories to maximize your best assets. Custom-made accessorized shoes are also available to match up to these gorgeous, flamboyant gowns.

As Jordan recounts "Nobody remembers a girl in a simple, white dress!" So, go on, venture out and find something different for yourself! Catch The Wedding Present at The Bridal Show on 17 April. 💕
